

COLORADO STRIKE GASES WILL BE DROPPED

Attorney General Announces No Prosecution in Majority of 84 Growing Out of 1911 Troubles.

DENVER, Col., July 26.—Attorney General Farrar of Colorado announced to-day that a majority of the eighty-four strikers' cases growing out of the 1911 coal strike and pending in the lower State courts will be dismissed.

The Supreme Court appeals of strike leaders John Lawson and others given life terms after convictions on charges of participating in fatal riots are not affected.

Life Term for Killing Employer.
CHELSEA, Vt., July 26.—Murder in the second degree was the verdict yesterday against One Williams, a farm hand accused of killing his employer.

Joseph Welch, of Wall Street, last April, has been sentenced to life imprisonment, who will be tried to September. The verdict carries a sentence of life imprisonment.

CHAUFFEUR KILLED IN CRASH

Auto Driver and Team Over on Hit Stone Wall.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., July 26.—Robert Bowley, forty-five years old, chauffeur for B. W. Parsons of Purchase, was killed early this morning when the limousine car skidded in front of the Oakes Harriman estate in Purchase. Bowley and Charlie Oliver, chauffeur for Leonard A. Hochstader, were on their way home. The road was wet and the car hit a fence stone through and crushed against a rock wall. The car turned over as it hit the wall.

Dr. J. P. Black was called, but Bowley was dead. Oliver escaped with bruises and slight lacerations.

Boat Cashier and Guest Stabbed.
ATLANTA, Ga., July 26.—Murder in the second degree was the verdict yesterday against One Williams, a farm hand accused of killing his employer.

BLAST SHAKES BIG FACTORY.

Engineer Is Severe. Probably Faculty Dr. Hartung of Pipe. James Stiles, Brooklyn engineer in the candy manufacturer of Stagg Brothers, 201 Lexington Avenue, Brooklyn, was badly burned today by a back draft when a pipe leading into the furnace burst. He probably will die.

The explosion shook the four-story building and an alarm of fire was turned in. Twenty men and boys and ten girls at work in the upper stories got out of the building without injury. The policeman Flanckel found the explosion and ran to the building in time to assist figures out of the cellar.
